Darrell Toliver

Why Weight? The Saga Of The Sinker.

Darrell Toliver has been an instructor for the Wisconsin DNR, the Outdoors Women organization, and several flying tying and casting groups. He is a past host of outdoors radio shows, previous advisor to the Great Lakes Fisheries Board and Boy Scouts of America, contributing writer for Gannett Newspapers, and member of various conservation organizations. He is presently a sporting goods representative for Sokol Associates, supporting many national brands. Darrell's presentation will be a comprehensive overview of fishing sinker and weight history and technology, including where, when, and how to use them for fishing success.

Club Meetings are on the 3rd Tuesday of each month Jan.- Nov.
